

FRONTRUNNER NEWS- APRIL 2008

FRontrunnerForWindows

New CD enclosed, put it in your machine now, - fixes a bug from last month.

WEEK 53 WEEK 53 WEEK 53

Unless you pay on a Sunday you will have a week 53 this year. Your payroll CD and instructions are being posted so they will be with you for Monday April 7th.

HMRC – business as usual

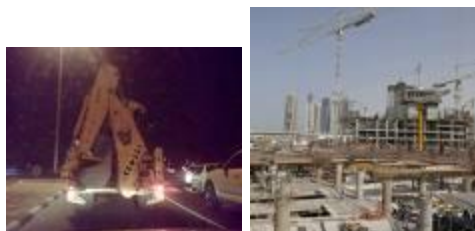

HMRC have issued some additional guidance on filing in year forms online. The guidance concerns online submission of forms P45 and P46. HMRC have advised that they will be making changes to their systems which will mean that employers will be unable to submit these forms online between 2 and 8 of April 2008 and that it may take until 14 April before the system is operating at full capacity.

ADVERTISEMENT

DUBAI the worlds biggest building site

See more JCB's than anywhere in the world
Marvel how our traffic jams compare to those of Rome, and how our Metro will be the envy of Springfield.
We have recreated everything you do not like about city life out of the desert – a modern miracle.
Come see for yourself!

OLD JOKES HOME

Why are there no casinos in China?
Because the Chinese hate Tibet.

BHA Security Team not out to get anyone – yeah right

BHA announce whitewash of staff, following on from the farcical goings on at the Old Bailey Shaftesbury avenue have moved swiftly to completely whitewash its bungling incompetents. Well done. That has certainly addressed the issue and the whole racing industry now has complete faith that only little trainers and jockeys can ever be found guilty of anything. We are still waiting (do not hold your breath) to find out which Muppet suggested that stupid Australian (no not Greg Nicholls, the other one). Shaftesbury Avenue looks more like Downing Street every day – WELL DONE!

Annual Merry go round

Elsy is not going to Churn stables, Ed is not going to Egerton, Coolmore are not buying Manton.

OLD JOKES HOME (II)

Q: Why are married women heavier than single women?

A: Single women come home, see what's in the fridge and go to bed.

Married women come home, see what's in bed and go to the fridge.

Who did it?

So which well known trainer was caught with his pants down in the female changing rooms whilst demonstrating his riding technique?

You've dunnett now

Well done to the Racing Post for managing to divert the trainers protest into a right old laugh. That certainly helps address the issue of low prize money.

Well done to the BHA, levy board, jockeys association, NTF, et al, for all rounding on Northern Racing and so demonstrating how everyone can work together.

Btw

Next week we have April Fool's Day on Tuesday, we are expected to celebrate with 8 class 5 races.

But it gets better on Wednesday with 12 class six races and 10 class 5 races from a total of 27 races.

That means that a staggering 81 % of Wednesday's races are class 5 or class 6 with the class 6 races carrying prize money between £2047 and £1744 and the class 5 races between £2590 and £2331 to the winners of each race.

No wonder Darley looks like relocating to Australia.

Mccrackpot tin tacked

How does the self serving egotistical publicist manage to turn his demotion into front page news? There is something seriously wrong with the editorial at the RP.

OLD JOKES HOME (III)

A dog is truly a man's best friend.

If you don't believe it, just try this experiment.

Lock your dog and your wife in the boot of the car for an hour. When you open the boot, which one is really happy to see you?

No reduction in fixtures for 2009

The appointment of Mr Erskine Crum reaps its first harvest.

BEEB

The BBC has become an extremely sad, misguided and second rate broadcaster. They lost Match of the Day, they lost test cricket, they lost the Derby, the Oaks and a host of other big races at various venues, including Cheltenham.

British horseracing and its associated industries generates an enormous amount of revenue, the taxation of which makes a large contribution towards the 'licence fee' for the Corporation to provide programmes.

They have recently ceased giving racing results on radio and have now reduced the ceefax service to a complete shambles, insulting their viewers in the process.

What have the BHA/B/C/D, Jockey Club, HRA, Racing Post, and so called leaders of our industry done about it. Sweet FA Mr Coward, a term with which you are no doubt familiar.

Give the fixtures to a broadcaster who is prepared to provide the whole deal and one who will present the product correctly, live and in its entirety.

Even Royal Ascot was a disaster, we were subjected to an interview with Bruce Forsyth,(who had defected to ITV), in the paddock while a race had already started !

Triumph hurdle wot a triumph

Edward Gillespie recently announced what a great championship race the Triumph now is. Obviously it would not have been enhanced with the presence of 3/5 of the top four year old hurdlers, Ashkazar, Binocular, or Crack Away Jack then?

Arena Leisure present the Well Shafted Awards for 2008

Paul McCartney's ex missus unloads some of the dosh!!

